

Tribune Graphic

British tank goes into action through a ruined French village on the Western front. The tank is still an object of curiosity to the Tommies, just as it is here.
British Official, Underwood

The armored tank Britannia, with the Municipal Building in the background. This tank invaded the courthouse site back of the Municipal Building and gave a demonstration of its prowess in overcoming obstacles.
Tribune Service

A Tommy and a poilu trying to make each other understand, at the entrance to a dugout on the Western front. The corrugated iron protects the entrance.
French Pictorial Service